

Prayers for January 2026

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. [Phil 4:6].

1. The Naming and Circumcision of Jesus. This day is a new day that has never been before. This year is a new year, the opening door. Enter, Lord Christ – we have joy in Your coming. You have given us life; and we welcome Your coming. We pray for all who live in Conghurst Lane, Risdene, Foxhole Lane. In our Deanery, we pray for the parish of Headcorn and The Suttons during their interregnum.
2. Basil the Great and Gregory of Nazianzus, Bishops, Teachers of the Faith, 379 and 389.
When trouble strikes and fear takes root and dreams are dry and sense unsound, when hope becomes a barren waste, then doubts like mountains soar around. Our wandering minds believe the worst and ask, as faith and fervour fade, 'Has God now turned His back on us, forsaking those He loved and made?' God says, 'See how a woman cares, can she forget the child she bore? Even if she did, I shan't forget. Though feeling lost, I love you more.'
We remember in prayer today those who live in Cowden Lane and Horns Road.
3. Hear, O Lord, when I cry aloud, be gracious to me and answer me! "Come," my heart says, "seek his face!" Your face, Lord, do I seek. Do not hide your face from me. [Ps 27: 7-9]. We pray for the people living in Delmonden Lane, and North Hill Road, and remember the parish of Holy Trinity, Hurst Green during their interregnum.
4. Second Sunday of Christmas. To my Lord and my God, I give myself yet again, confidently, because He cares to have me and because my very breath is His. I will be what He wants, who knows all about it and has done everything that I might be His own – a living glory of gladness. [George MacDonald]. We pray for all living in Red Oak and Hensil Lane.
5. Therefore let us make the Covenant of God our own. Let us engage our heart to the Lord, and resolve in His strength never to go back! We pray for all who worship and serve in the Roman Catholic Church of St Barnabas and Fr Ethelbert Ukpabi. We pray for families who live on The Moor and in The Chestnuts.
6. The Epiphany. The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until tribute comes to him; and the obedience of the peoples is his. Binding his foal to the vine and his donkey's colt to the choice vine, he washes his garments in wine and his robe in the blood of grapes; [Gen 49:10-11]. Bless and guide the King and all members of the Royal family. We pray for all living on Horns Corner and Horns Hill.
7. Give me a candle of the Spirit, O God, as I go down into the deeps of my being. Show me the hidden things, the creatures of my dreams, the storehouse of forgotten memories and hurts. Take me down to the spring of my life, and tell me my nature and my name. Give me freedom to grow, so that I may become that self, the seed of which You planted in me at my making. [George

Appleton]. We pray for all living on Moor Hill, Talbot Road and The Hawthorns; Stream Lane and Hastings Road.

- 8 He chose his servant David, and took him from the sheepfolds; from tending the nursing ewes he brought him to be the shepherd of his people Jacob, of Israel, his inheritance. With upright heart he tended them, and guided them with skillful hand. [Ps 78:70-72]. We remember in our prayers all living in All Saints Road, Smugglers, Smugglers Mews and Dickens Way.
- 9 I am not here to pass judgement or point the finger at anyone. My name was written in the sand as one who is forgiven. Strengthened with hope, impervious to shame, I will walk freely like the freshness of the dry lands after rain. Let light spill out of heaven through my life, dispelling mediocrity and silent blame. Too many people, guilt-stricken, wounded, walk in regret, feeling bad about failing, apologise even for breathing. Raw belief, a passion for others grows in me, encircling each moment with instinctive prayer. I will carry the freshness of the dry lands after rain. Compassion lives in me again. [Andy Raine]. We remember the parishioners of Trinity Church, Sissinghurst with St Mary's Frittenden during their interregnum.
10. William Laud, Archbishop of Canterbury, 1645,
*If you want your dream to be Take your time, go slowly
Do few things but do them well Heartfelt work grows purely
If you want to live life free Take your time, go slowly
Do few things but do them well Heartfelt work grows purely
Day by day, stone by stone Build your secret slowly
Day by day, you'll grow too You'll know heaven's glory
If you want to live life free Take your time, go slowly
If you want your dream to be Take your time, go slowly
['Little Church' (Donovan Leitch)]*
- 11 First Sunday of Epiphany. Baptism of Christ. As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased." [Matt 3:16-17]. We pray for all who live in Tongswood Drive and Whites Lane.
12. Aelred of Hexham, Abbot of Rievaulx, 1167 .

God called forth a people, and we responded to His call, 'Rebuild this ancient ruin, restore my city walls.' He has led us day by day, as we listened to His voice, and we were fed on finest wheat, and manna from the skies. When we started, we were strangers. We hardly knew each other's names. Now we are brothers and sisters, and we will never be the same. As we built, brick by brick, we discovered the corner stone, and as we let Him mould and fashion us, He built us up in love. Now we have seen, and we have heard, that the Lord our God is great, for a wilderness has been transformed, into His holy place. [Gerry Tuohy].

We pray for all who work in and own shops, pubs, restaurants and businesses in the High Street, in our village. We pray for all who live in Cranbrook Road and Sandrock Cottages. We pray for the parish of Cranbrook and their Vicar Revd. Richard King.

- 13 Kentigern (Mungo), Missionary Bishop in Strathclyde and Cumbria, 603. Restore our fortunes, O Lord, like the watercourses in the Negeb. May those who sow in tears reap with shouts of joy. Those who go out weeping, bearing the seed for sowing, shall come home with shouts of joy, carrying their sheaves. [Ps 126:4-6]. Bless all the doctors, nurses and staff who work at Benenden Hospital and the Hawkhurst Community Hospital. We pray and give thanks for all who work in the emergency services. Bless and guide those living in Fairview and Northgrove Road. We pray for all who worship in the Parish of Marden and the Vicar, Revd. Nicola Harvey.
14. Ah God, You with the Maker's eye, can tell if all that's feared is real, and see if life is more than what we suffer, dread, despise and feel. If some by faith no longer stand nor hear the truth Your voice intones, stretch out Your hand to help Your folk from stumbling blocks to stepping stones.
We pray for those living in Gills Green and Wellington Cottages, Tubs Lake and those living in Bedgebury.
15. When the work is done, when comes the day of the Refiner's fire, when they are purged like gold and silver to offer Me an offering in righteousness then shall the offering of My people in My holy place be pleasant unto Me, the Lord your God, as in the days of old, and as in former years: a place of peace, a dwelling-place for man and God.
We pray today for all ordinands and those in training for Licensed Lay Ministry. Bless those living in Gingerbread Lane, Woodham Close, Birchfield Grove and The High Street and for the parish of Goudhurst and Kilndown, and their Vicar, Revd. Rachel Robertson.
16. He turns a desert into pools of water, a parched land into springs of water. And there he lets the hungry live, and they establish a town to live in; they sow fields, and plant vineyards, and get a fruitful yield. [Ps 107:35-37].
We pray for those living in Gunther Court, Hartnokes and Basden Cottages, and also for the parishes of Ticehurst and Flimwell and their vicar, the Revd. Canon Dr Jason Radcliff.
17. Antony of Egypt, Hermit, Abbot, 356.

19. Wulfstan, Bishop of Worcester, 1095.

Move us to spread this hope to everyone everywhere. You are the true Light, who casts out the darkness of sin, and shines into our hearts the joy and hope of your eternal love. Amen.*

Spirit of God, and true God, who descended on the river Jordan, and into the upper-room; who enlightened us by the baptism of the Holy Font, we have sinned against Heaven and before you, purify us again with your divine fire, as you did the Apostles with fiery tongues. Have mercy on Your creatures and especially on us. Amen.

We pray today for those who live in Copthall Avenue, Fieldways and Church Walk.
